

CONTROLLED TRAFFIC FARMING SESSION

Carnamah Landcare Group supported by Yarra Yarra Catchment Management Group

Date: 21st June 2017

Place: Carnamah Landcare Building

Time: 5pm – 7pm

Presenter: Bindi Isbister

Development Officer
Department of Agriculture and Food,
Western Australia

Bindi has 15yrs experience in soil management research, development and extension, in particular soil compaction, CTF and precision agriculture. She is currently working on DAFWA's GRDC funded project DAW243 "Minimising the impact of soil compaction on crop yield".

RSVP: By the 12th June 2017. Light nibblies and refreshments available. Register your particular interest &/or questions with:

Jude Sutherland:
landcarecoordinator@yarrayarracatchment.org.au or give me a call on 0429 647 506 if you have any queries.

Topics suggested so far:

Setting up machines without breaking the bank

Widths of machinery

Deep ripping

DAFWA Calculator Online

Can we retain stubble through CTF

Compaction

Flexibility of the system

Photo: Green B, 2016

This workshop is organised by Yarra Yarra Catchment Management Group Program supported by funding from the Western Australian Government's State NRM Program, supported by Royalties for Regions.

natural resource management program

Department of Agriculture and Food

