

Livestock 17

Research and Technology updates

Friday, 21 July 2017 – Kendenup Lodge, 217 Moorilup Rd, Kendenup

Time	Activity and Speaker
8.00 am	Registration
8.30 am	Welcome - Derek Curwen, Stirlings to Coast Chairman
8.40 am 25mins pres 5 min Q&A	Keynote speaker: Lisa Sharp, Meat and Livestock Australia's Business Unit General Manager Domestic and international trends and marketing activity with a brief overview on market access – key changes
9:10 am 25mins pres 5 min Q&A	Keynote speaker: Prof. James Rowe, CEO Sheep CRC Ltd. The new app ASKBILL providing detailed predictions for your livestock and pastures based on climate, health and productivity
9.40 am	Morning tea
	Concurrent Sessions
	Stream 1	Stream 2
10.00 am 20min pres 5min Q&A 5 mins moving	Fitbits for sheep; flashing the fashion towards ripped genes – Beth Paganoni, Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development (prev. DAFWA)	Technology Supporting Agricultural Brand Protection & Product Authenticity – Neil Mulcahy, Aglive
10.30 am 20min pres 5min Q&A 5 mins moving	Applications of GPS Tracking Livestock - Dr Dean Thomas, CSIRO Livestock Industries	Whole of Farm Wifi Technology – Jeremy Devenish, Southern Western Wireless
11.00 am 20min pres 5min Q&A 5 mins moving	Achieving Lambing 142%, Calving 95% plus. If not why not? – Dr Pauline Roberts, Dandaragan Vet Services	Commercially focused reproductive technology for beef herds to increase genetic gain and economic success: Victoria Bennett, SCFarmers for ABS Beef
11.30 pm	Panel discussion - SCF Cooperative feedlot project – Run by Christine Kershaw
12.15 pm – 13:00	Lunch at Kendenup Lodge, sponsored by Landmark
13:00 – 13:30	Bus to Farm Tour – MLA producer demonstration site – Slade family farm
13:30 pm – 16:30 15 mins each with 5 mins Q&A:	Speaker demonstrations: An on-farm case study of sheep handling technology: economic rationale and workplace benefits - John Paul Collins, SIBI Precision sheep, using eID made easy - Jonathan England, AgInnovate "Meating the Grade": present your best for cattle grading – Neroli Smith, MSA	Electric Auto-Drafter demo - Roby Parker, Tru-Test Slade "Easy Fencer" demo – David Slade Sheep handling demo - Richard Roe, Dandaragan Machinery Animal Welfare codes of conduct regulations – Charlotte McIntyre, DAFWA
4.30pm	Bus return from farm
5.00 pm	Sundowner and networking session with drinks and finger food
7.00 pm	Dinner (optional pay as you go)	